“With wine at hand, the good man concerns himself, not with getting drunk, but with drinking in all the natural delectabilities of wine: its power to turn evenings into occasions, to lift eating beyond nourishment to conviviality, and to bring the race, for a few hours, to that happy state where men are wise and women beautiful, and even one’s children begin to look promising.”

– Compliments of Tom O’Connor

Pahlmeyer Wines

Once in a great while a winemaker does an exceptional job of creating a broad range of excellent wines in a panoply of varietals. Such a winemaker is Erin Green, the winemaker at Pahlmeyer. She has taken the tradition of Helen Turley, her predecessor, and created a stable of great wines.

We honor the Pahlmeyer winery with their own page.
